

Carol Hallquist is founder of PrincipalsConnect, which provides volunteers to urban schools. She created the nonprofit during her yearlong fellowship at Harvard's 2016 Advanced Leadership program. She retired as the President of the Hallmark Corporate Foundation and held several executive positions with Hallmark Cards in her 32 year career with the company. Carol's community involvement focuses on education, diversity and women's leadership as she serves on five education-based nonprofit boards. She was recently appointed by Missouri's Governor to the State Board of Early Childhood Education.
