

Todd Geiman is Senior Vice President and Manager of HomeDirect Mortgage the Consumer Direct Lending Division of BOK Financial, a $28 billion financial services company since April of 2013.

Geiman has more than 20 years experience in the mortgage industry with a proven track record of building mortgage lending divisions. Most recently he served as Executive Vice president at National Bank of Kansas City where he led a consumer direct mortgage division which generated more than $2.4 billion in revenue in 2012.

As manager of HomeDirect Mortgage, Geiman has direct responsibility for recruiting, training and maintaining the consumer direct division which includes all aspects of the mortgage process from origination to closing.

Geiman earned a bachelor's degree from Bethany College and a master's degree in education from Washburn University. He served as an assistant basketball coach while in graduate school at Washburn University and as the assistant principal/athletic director and basketball coach at Spring Hill High School in Spring Hill, Ks from 1989 to 1993.

Todd serves on the boards of ACE(Alliance for Childhood Education), a non-profit early childhood education advocacy organization and Power Group Basketball, a competitive AAU youth boys' basketball organization. He has also volunteered as a coach for competitive youth basketball teams over the past several years. He resides in Stilwell, KS with his wife Cindy of 30+ yrs and has three children, Shelby, Bailey and Tyler.